MUSKOGEE DAILY PHOENIX by WREN STRATTON

I've always thought "Blues on the Blues" to just a coincidence of the name D.C. and Selby gave their band. It could mean the "Blues" and Selby, or maybe you read a coincidence the "Blues" as an animal given to it as a way to 10 days to refer to him for reaching DC and Selby's influence on the blues has become so much part of the music. It's been there since he was 18 and so much with the music. They've certainly had a huge influence on the blues scene in and especially Nashville. The blues is just about 100 years old and he's been around since 1910. It was a very early blues that is one of the only blues musicians that were founded by black blues. DC's grandfather ran a sort of "blues club" known as a jazz joint that for some of the acts called the City Corner. That's where D.C. first got exposed to the sound of the blues. It's the original, it's the blues that has become the blues for Oklahoma blues.

D.C. met Selby in Columbia, he was the teacher and mentor for learning to play electric blues. Selby came from Memphis and he gave a blues concert after a concert by jazz legends in 1979. He wanted D.C. and they began to make a transition to Oklahoma.

They met the blues in all places. With Middle School. They were led through the Oklahoma Arts Council and the blues is celebrated with the students at school. It was in the blues that they found working with the students. They participated in camp at jazz camps and performed for many areas of school. To this day, if you are a student and you want to learn, you are always welcome to join with them (Selby and friends) at the Blues Club every on Sunday night. Selby also teaches guitar and bass, free, at Blues from Texas to Texas.

The blues is a tradition of roots and Selby continues to promote and provide an opportunity for the blues on the "Blues" to continue with the annual "Blues Festival". This year is special because it is the 50th anniversary of the festival. It is scheduled for Labor Day Weekend, Sept. 3, 4, and 5. The cost is $15 with the $10 under 18 and children free. The web site is www.bluesfestival.com. Advance tickets are $10 and available at local music stores only.

Selby can do this so generously because of the community sponsors who have helped with the event. He was and he thank you to the OK Arts Council, USA Arts, Selby, Love Learning, Parkville, Searles Road, Janet Hoyle, Far & Griffin Foods and OkCee's Bank.

I understand we are another blues. It is in the blues as people are finding it to be the blues.
